SIR,

Regarding entertainment of a peon to the newly constructed Musafirkhana at Anekal.

I have the honour to bring to the notice of Government that the Board have recently constructed a Musafirkhana at Anekal for the use of travellers. The building is without a care-taker. The Sanitary Inspector in his report No.396 dated 26th April 1929 requested for the entertainment of a care-taker to look after the building. The District Board at their last meeting have resolved that the services of the care-taker of Hebbagodi chattram be transferred to this place. The Government while sanctioning the increase of pay to the care-takers of all the 3rd Class Travellers' Bungalows and Musafirkhanas in the District have in their order No.L.420-21/L.B.42-27-35 dated 14th July 1928, ordered that the care-takers of chattrams at Bidadi, Closepet, Hindignal, Hebbagodi, and Kankanhalli be abolished as there are two buildings very near to each other in the same place. As such the services of the care-taker of Hebbagodi chattram cannot be transferred to Anekal, but a new man has to be entertained. A copy of the resolution is enclosed.

2. The building is without a watchman and there is
